

The Ohio Statesman

MANTYREY & MILLER, Publishers.

W. W. MANTYREY, Editor.

COLUMBUS, OHIO.

FRIDAY EVENING JAN. 4, 1891.

ADVERTISEMENTS TO BE MADE BY THE STATESMAN.

The Statesman for the Session of the Legislature.

The Statesman will be furnished for four months covering the period occupied by the legislative session, for the sum of Two Dollars.

The Statesman will be furnished for the same time for the sum of One Dollar. All persons who desire to be accurately informed of the doings of the General Assembly, should take the Statesman.

The Statesman of this day week gave due notice that it would attend to the Statesman this week.

Notwithstanding this statement, an announcement, the Statesman of this morning is made.

It has never been a word in defense of Strawn, and the Auditor, turning them over to that scandalous concern, the State-machine for defense and protection. Has the Statesman got in its pocket the $137.40 paid in 1890 for advertising the delinquent list, which it did not advertise? If so the editor must have felt the necessity of his own conscience, when during the campaign he was abusing Mr. Aron and Dr. Moore, and attacking Capt. Ramey, the county proctor. The Statesman is, we believe, as corrupt as the State-machine, and we shall not now promise to attend to it, we may at some future time open up a budget, and exhibit its deception and dishonesty, in city and county matters, and its duplicity generally.

The Statesman in Favor of the Constitution.

The South Carolina State Convention, on Wednesday, adopted a report recommending that proper measures be taken for the formation of a Southern Confederacy, by the appointment of Commissioners to the slaveholding States, asking them to call Conventions to consider their political relations. The South Carolina politicians have voted themselves out of the Union; but they evince a strong disposition not to remain out alone. They cornered waiting for the concurrence of other States before passing the Secession Ordinance; but now having committed that revolutionary act, they are eager for sympathy and cooperation. This is at least a good sign. It may cause delay, and the very effort to form a new Union may lead at last to the persuasion that no better can be formed than the old one, under which we have lived and prospered for nearly three-fourths of a century.

It would appear that the members of the South Carolina Convention themselves are convinced of this; for the report they adopted suggests (and the suggestion is intended for the benefit of other slaveholding States as well as South Carolina) that "the instrument called the Constitution of the United States, is a suitable and proper basis to be offered for a provisional government."

The report then goes on to reason upon the propriety of the recommendation, and says the highest compliment to the framers of the Constitution and to the instrument itself, as "a good form of government for those sufficiently virtuous, intelligent and patriotic, to cause it to be fairly and honestly construed and impartially carried out."

Neither the Constitution nor the form of government adopted for the confederated States is at fault. Both are admirably adapted to form and structure for the purpose intended. What then is the difficulty, that the South Carolina Secessionists are unwilling to remain loyal under that form of government, and yield obedience to that Constitution, which is so superior to any one they can devise, that they propose to make it the basis of their new Southern Confederacy? There is no pretence that the Constitution has been perverted by the Federal Government, in any of its departments. The only objection hinted at in the report, according to the telegraphic account of it, is that in some of the States the Constitution has been misinterpreted and violated. Now that very thing which has occurred often in South Carolina and other Southern States, as well as at the North, and will undoubtedly occur in any Confederacy of States that can be formed with a written Constitution. For infractions of itself, by individuals and by States, the Constitution has provided a remedy by the powers vested in Congress and in the Federal Courts. Secession and the formation of a new Confederacy will not remedy the evil, but increase it; because the new Constitution will be constantly for a long time, subject to questions of interpretation and construction, which have been long ago settled and forever put to rest under our present one.

THE PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

Both branches of this body organized at Harrisburg on New Year's day. All the officers are Republicans. Mr. PALMER, of Schuylkill county, is elected speaker of the Senate, and Mr. DAVIS, of Venango, Speaker of the House. Gov. PACKER delivered his message to the Legislature on Wednesday, a brief account of which was given in our telegraphic despatches of that date. It appears to be in the main of a conservative character. It is noticeable that Gov. PACKER recommends that the master be permitted to retain the services of his slave, while journeying in Pennsylvania; and also that the Missouri Compromise be restored. On this latter point, he differs from Gov. MORRIS, of New York, who is opposed to the restoration of the line.

Gov. PACKER's term of three years expires on the 15th inst., when his successor, A. G. CURTIS, will be inaugurated. The latter has already selected his Cabinet—SAMUEL A. FURBER, of Butler county, to be Attorney General, and E. L. SHREVE, of Union, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

Letter from Major Anderson.

For MONTICELLO, S. C., Dec. 25.

Dear Sir:—I thank you for the trouble you have taken to take in correcting some of the rumors about me. You are right in saying that I could not and would not say anything contradictory of them. My plan has always been to try and do my duty honestly and fully, and trust that the good sense and justice of the people will give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment must turn out to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are choosing to make up positions here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing, which is nothing more than any one else should do in my position, and, perhaps, not half so well as many others would do. I receive nearly every mail letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers. I hope that it will not be long before something will occur to give me a chance of being relieved from my present position.

Yours truly,

ROBERT ANDERSON.

THE JAPANESE EMBASSY IN THEIR VOYAGE HOME—Something about "Tommy."

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Press writes a letter to that paper, dated U. S. steam frigate, Niagara, harbor of Hong-Kong, October 28, 1890, in which he says that the Niagara would leave there on the following day, expecting to arrive at Yeddo, about the 13th of November. We make the following extract from the letter. The shabby treatment which the Japanese received on board the Niagara, if the account given below is true, is deeply to be regretted.

"Little has occurred of interest during our trip being in such a hurry to get the Embassy home. They still have the most kindly feeling to our nation, but are perfectly disgusted with our captain, whom they have been treated by our captain during the voyage. He has entirely overlooked the fact that the ship was fitted out for the express accommodation of the Japanese, and he has treated them in a manner that is not only very gross in the discipline of a ship's company of the navy, but might have been well done away with in this case. For instance, preventing their having lights in their cabins after nine o'clock, although they had been requested to do so, and preventing them from smoking during the ship, but at stated intervals. Such like little aggressions as these have been procured for himself the dislike of them all, and they are by no means choosing in their expressions of disgust. Moreover, by making long passages, it has been impossible to furnish them with fresh water for washing purposes, and as they have a dislike to salt water their quarters have become overrun with vermin. I think if some of those love-lick-damels who were so carried away with Tommy, were to see him of a warm day; hugging himself and kissing their likenesses, they would sigh for him no more. On Tuesday, January 1, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, January 2, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, January 3, we were off to sea, and on Friday, January 4, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, January 5, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, January 6, we were off to sea, and on Monday, January 7, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, January 8, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, January 9, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, January 10, we were off to sea, and on Friday, January 11, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, January 12, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, January 13, we were off to sea, and on Monday, January 14, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, January 15, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, January 16, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, January 17, we were off to sea, and on Friday, January 18, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, January 19, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, January 20, we were off to sea, and on Monday, January 21, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, January 22, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, January 23, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, January 24, we were off to sea, and on Friday, January 25, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, January 26, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, January 27, we were off to sea, and on Monday, January 28, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, January 29, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, January 30, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, January 31, we were off to sea, and on Friday, February 1, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, February 2, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, February 3, we were off to sea, and on Monday, February 4, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, February 5, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, February 6, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, February 7, we were off to sea, and on Friday, February 8, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, February 9, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, February 10, we were off to sea, and on Monday, February 11, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, February 12, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, February 13, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, February 14, we were off to sea, and on Friday, February 15, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, February 16, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, February 17, we were off to sea, and on Monday, February 18, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, February 19, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, February 20, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, February 21, we were off to sea, and on Friday, February 22, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, February 23, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, February 24, we were off to sea, and on Monday, February 25, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, February 26, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, February 27, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, February 28, we were off to sea, and on Friday, February 29, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, March 1, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, March 2, we were off to sea, and on Monday, March 3, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, March 4, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, March 5, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, March 6, we were off to sea, and on Friday, March 7, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, March 8, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, March 9, we were off to sea, and on Monday, March 10, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, March 11, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, March 12, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, March 13, we were off to sea, and on Friday, March 14, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, March 15, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, March 16, we were off to sea, and on Monday, March 17, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, March 18, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, March 19, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, March 20, we were off to sea, and on Friday, March 21, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, March 22, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, March 23, we were off to sea, and on Monday, March 24, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, March 25, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, March 26, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, March 27, we were off to sea, and on Friday, March 28, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, March 29, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, March 30, we were off to sea, and on Monday, March 31, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, April 1, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, April 2, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, April 3, we were off to sea, and on Friday, April 4, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, April 5, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, April 6, we were off to sea, and on Monday, April 7, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, April 8, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, April 9, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, April 10, we were off to sea, and on Friday, April 11, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, April 12, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, April 13, we were off to sea, and on Monday, April 14, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, April 15, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, April 16, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, April 17, we were off to sea, and on Friday, April 18, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, April 19, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, April 20, we were off to sea, and on Monday, April 21, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, April 22, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, April 23, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, April 24, we were off to sea, and on Friday, April 25, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, April 26, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, April 27, we were off to sea, and on Monday, April 28, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, April 29, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, April 30, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, May 1, we were off to sea, and on Friday, May 2, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, May 3, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, May 4, we were off to sea, and on Monday, May 5, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, May 6, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, May 7, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, May 8, we were off to sea, and on Friday, May 9, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, May 10, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, May 11, we were off to sea, and on Monday, May 12, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, May 13, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, May 14, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, May 15, we were off to sea, and on Friday, May 16, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, May 17, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, May 18, we were off to sea, and on Monday, May 19, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, May 20, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, May 21, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, May 22, we were off to sea, and on Friday, May 23, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, May 24, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, May 25, we were off to sea, and on Monday, May 26, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, May 27, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, May 28, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, May 29, we were off to sea, and on Friday, May 30, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, May 31, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, June 1, we were off to sea, and on Monday, June 2, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, June 3, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, June 4, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, June 5, we were off to sea, and on Friday, June 6, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, June 7, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, June 8, we were off to sea, and on Monday, June 9, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, June 10, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, June 11, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, June 12, we were off to sea, and on Friday, June 13, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, June 14, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, June 15, we were off to sea, and on Monday, June 16, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, June 17, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, June 18, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, June 19, we were off to sea, and on Friday, June 20, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, June 21, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, June 22, we were off to sea, and on Monday, June 23, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, June 24, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, June 25, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, June 26, we were off to sea, and on Friday, June 27, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, June 28, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, June 29, we were off to sea, and on Monday, June 30, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, July 1, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, July 2, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, July 3, we were off to sea, and on Friday, July 4, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, July 5, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, July 6, we were off to sea, and on Monday, July 7, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, July 8, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, July 9, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, July 10, we were off to sea, and on Friday, July 11, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, July 12, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, July 13, we were off to sea, and on Monday, July 14, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, July 15, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, July 16, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, July 17, we were off to sea, and on Friday, July 18, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, July 19, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, July 20, we were off to sea, and on Monday, July 21, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, July 22, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, July 23, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, July 24, we were off to sea, and on Friday, July 25, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, July 26, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, July 27, we were off to sea, and on Monday, July 28, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, July 29, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, July 30, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, July 31, we were off to sea, and on Friday, August 1, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, August 2, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, August 3, we were off to sea, and on Monday, August 4, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, August 5, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, August 6, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, August 7, we were off to sea, and on Friday, August 8, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, August 9, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, August 10, we were off to sea, and on Monday, August 11, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, August 12, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, August 13, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, August 14, we were off to sea, and on Friday, August 15, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, August 16, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, August 17, we were off to sea, and on Monday, August 18, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, August 19, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, August 20, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, August 21, we were off to sea, and on Friday, August 22, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, August 23, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, August 24, we were off to sea, and on Monday, August 25, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, August 26, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, August 27, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, August 28, we were off to sea, and on Friday, August 29, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, August 30, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, August 31, we were off to sea, and on Monday, September 1, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, September 2, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, September 3, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, September 4, we were off to sea, and on Friday, September 5, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, September 6, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, September 7, we were off to sea, and on Monday, September 8, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, September 9, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, September 10, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, September 11, we were off to sea, and on Friday, September 12, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, September 13, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, September 14, we were off to sea, and on Monday, September 15, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, September 16, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, September 17, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, September 18, we were off to sea, and on Friday, September 19, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, September 20, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, September 21, we were off to sea, and on Monday, September 22, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, September 23, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, September 24, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, September 25, we were off to sea, and on Friday, September 26, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, September 27, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, September 28, we were off to sea, and on Monday, September 29, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, September 30, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, October 1, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, October 2, we were off to sea, and on Friday, October 3, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, October 4, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, October 5, we were off to sea, and on Monday, October 6, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, October 7, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, October 8, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, October 9, we were off to sea, and on Friday, October 10, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, October 11, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, October 12, we were off to sea, and on Monday, October 13, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, October 14, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, October 15, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, October 16, we were off to sea, and on Friday, October 17, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, October 18, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, October 19, we were off to sea, and on Monday, October 20, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, October 21, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, October 22, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, October 23, we were off to sea, and on Friday, October 24, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, October 25, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, October 26, we were off to sea, and on Monday, October 27, we were off to sea, and on Tuesday, October 28, we were off to sea, and on Wednesday, October 29, we were off to sea, and on Thursday, October 30, we were off to sea, and on Friday, October 31, we were off to sea, and on Saturday, November 1, we were off to sea, and on Sunday, November 2, we were off to sea, and on Monday, November 3, we